OVERVIEW

In addition to being one of North America's premier performing arts venues, the Chan Centre has become increasingly well known as an ideal location for receptions, meetings, conferences and other special events.

Conveniently located within close proximity to downtown Vancouver and nestled amid the lush landscape of the University of British Columbia, the Chan Centre's tranquil setting, in tandem with its striking architecture and superior facilities, make it a venue of choice for presenters and organizers from myriad disciplines and industries. Experienced staff ensures that all events, from simple receptions to larger conferences, run smoothly and efficiently.

The Chan Centre's various venues are available for stand-alone receptions as well as for receptions held in conjunction with other events.

RECEPTION VENUES

Glass Lobby & Patio

With its soaring windows and verdant surroundings, the Chan Centre's elegant Glass Lobby offers a warm, open ambience that is ideal for receptions. Full service bars and an espresso counter are available, with ample room in the Lobby for catering tables and other entertainment options.

Weather permitting, clients may wish to take advantage of the adjacent outdoor patio. Located beside an evergreen forest, guests can take a short stroll through the neighbouring Rose Garden or stay and enjoy a beverage from the Chan Centre's portable bar service.

Great Performers Lounge

Accessible through the Chan Centre Glass Lobby or via the Royal Bank Cinema entrance, the recently renovated Great Performers Lounge is perfect for receptions, meetings, seminars and presentations. The large, open and uncluttered space is complemented by picturesque mountain views and an impressive photo gallery, which highlights many of the great performers who have graced the Chan's stages.

The multi-functional venue may be furnished with chairs and tables, with full bar service available. Sound links to both the Chan Shun Concert Hall and Telus Studio Theatre are also in place. Washrooms are conveniently located just outside the Lounge area.

Royal Bank Cinema Lobby

The Royal Bank Cinema Lobby (RBC Lobby) is just the thing for small, informal receptions. Used in conjunction with events held in the Royal Bank Cinema and the Great Performers Lounge, the space is a popular spot for casual "meet & greet" functions or coffee breaks.

Located just outside the Royal Bank Cinema, the RBC Lobby has a separate entrance from the main Chan Centre entryway as well as adjacent washrooms. Bar services are available.

Telus Studio Theatre

In special circumstances, and with the approval of the Chan Centre Events Manager and Technical Director, the Telus Studio Theatre may be rented for receptions and parties. Bar services are available.

SERVICE & LABOUR COSTS

The Chan Centre's License Periods must include all set-up, event and clean-up time. License fees include a complement of Front of House staff, please see the Chan Centre's Schedule of Rates for details.

Please note that additional costs are applicable for any event that requires Chan Centre Front of House staff for more than the Front of House allowance included in the License Period.
