musica intima

Internationally renowned for their engaging stage presence, impeccable musicianship and new perspectives on ensemble singing, musica intima has earned a reputation as one of Canada's most unique vocal ensembles. A shared leadership model allows the singers to exchange ideas freely while exploring their own musical creativity, and this freedom leads to dynamic performances where the ensemble engages with the audience directly and spontaneously.

Over the past almost thirty years, musica intima has commissioned twenty new works from Canadian composers and has championed contemporary Canadian vocal repertoire around the country and across the world. musica intima has released ten commercial recordings, received two JUNO nominations, and one Western Canadian Music Award.

Recent and upcoming highlights have included a tour to the Busan Choral Festival in Korea (2016), the Chan Centre-presented collaboration with international superstar vocalist Bobby McFerrin (2019), a collaboration with a rising star of the Musical Theatre world, spoken word artist and activist Germaine Konji (2021), and an upcoming guest curation by Canadian composer of Cree descent Andrew Balfour (2022).

Thank you for coming!

Join us next week on Mar 16 to see pianist Patricia Hoy perform.
Music by Stephen Chatman, Frédéric Chopin, and Robert Schumann.
