Musical Magic: Winter Wonders
Jr. Artisan Catalogue

Créations de Charlie
Charlie (age 11) | @creations.charlie

Payment: Cash and card accepted

Charlie sells origami earrings, gold wire and precious stone jewelry, and friendship bracelets. What started as an interest in origami gradually evolved into a fascination with miniatures and then became a passion for tiny jewelry. Lots of experimenting keeps happening, so the collection continually evolves.

tor.dy.art
Charlyn (age 11) | @tor.dy.art

Payment: Cash and card accepted

tor.dy.art brings creative vibes through original greeting cards, art prints, tote bags, stickers, and everything in between. What started with a 6-year-old drawing cards for friends has grown into a vendor at White Rock's markets. Come say hi and catch their festive vibes at Chan Centre!

Sugar Pop Shop
Maia (age 13)

Payment: Cash only

Sugar Pop Shop sells handmade beaded earrings, bracelets, keychains, and phone charms. Maia has always admired creators with small businesses and enjoys using her creativity to turn simple products into something special!

Looooops
Sarah (age 11) & Maya (age 11)

Payment: Cash and card accepted

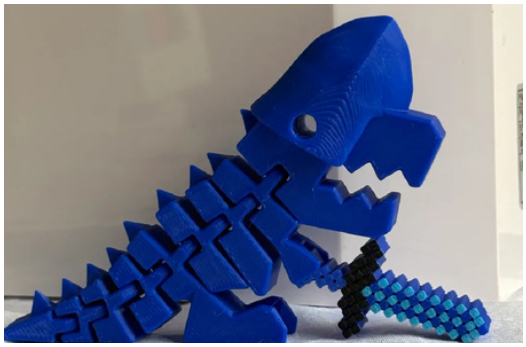

Looooops sells crochet goods of all kinds, including plushies, keychains, and more. Sarah and Maya enjoy the satisfaction of the creative process, feeling the pride in the final product, and sharing their crafts with family, friends, and the community.

ForgeX3D

Yusuf (age 16) & Hamza (age 13)

Payment: Cash and card accepted

ForgeX3D sells 3D-printed toys, fidgets, household items, and more! Yusuf attends a STEM high school where he learned 3D design and printing. Later, he had a chance to practice more and more at home with his 2 printers. He also taught his brother, Hamza, and together they have been enjoying their young entrepreneurship by joining kids' markets.

Swirls and Smiles Card Co.

Victoria (age 15)

Payment: Cash only

Swirls and Smiles Card Co. sells handmade quilled greeting cards – individual strips of rolled paper manipulated into different shapes and designs. Victoria started making cards in grade 6 after receiving a set for Christmas. She always admired this style of card, but thought the store-bought ones lacked personality. Through her business, Victoria creates things she can be proud of while spreading joy!
